Our Approach

Experiential Learning Journey: We prioritize hands-on, interactive activities that transcend traditional rote learning, immersing students in real-world scenarios that challenge and inspire.

Collaborative Project Endeavors: Our curriculum is rooted in team-based projects, fostering a collaborative environment where students harness the power of collective intelligence to address pressing challenges.

Cultivating Critical Thinkers: Through our learner-centric approach, we design activities that not only engage but also stimulate critical thinking, empowering students to analyze, innovate, and lead with confidence and vision.

"My child truly grew at the camp. The hands-on projects and teamwork were invaluable. Their newfound confidence is evident.

KNOW YOUR
Harvard Mentors

Harvard Leadership BootCamp is led by Harvard undergraduate students who are leaders in their own communities. Differentiating this program are the student teachers and their youthful perspective on leadership development. Reliable and relatable, the teachers serve as advisors and friends to the students, breaking down intimidating age-based authority structures.

With tremendous enthusiasm for both teaching and learning, the teaching team constantly learns from the students, adapts to their interests and needs, and builds lasting relationships that continue after the program through formal and informal mentorship opportunities.

Engage Actively: Students are not passive learners; they actively engage, solve problems, and make decisions in their education.
Step into Real Scenarios: Case studies bridge theory and real-world application, enabling students to apply classroom knowledge to practical scenarios.

Boost Critical Thinking: Beyond comprehension, case studies involve analysis, solutions, and informed decision-making, honing critical and problem-solving skills.

Collaborate and Conquer: Often a group activity, case studies promote collaboration, effective communication, and teamwork.

Real-World Prep: Through these studies, students step into real-world challenges, prepping them for future leadership positions.

Navigate the Gray Zones: In the real world, not everything is black and white. Case studies, often without clear solutions, teach students to navigate gray areas with poise.

Case Studies at Harvard Leadership BootCamp

Embark on a journey where learning transcends textbooks and lectures, and immerse yourself in the real-world scenarios through our meticulously curated Case Studies at the Harvard Leadership BootCamp.

Social Impact at the Harvard Leadership BootCamp

THE GAMECHANGER

Participants are charged with the creation of a social impact project, tackling significant community challenges.

This venture is more than a mere assignment; it represents a deep exploration into the realm of social entrepreneurship.

In team settings, students meld varied viewpoints to architect solutions with real-world impact.

Through the journey from brainstorming to the final showcase, students navigate the complexities of concept development and project orchestration.

But the adventure extends beyond the program.

Armed with the skills and methodologies learned at Harvard Leadership Bootcamp, students can enhance their academic portfolios and continue to grow their projects, demonstrating not only their acquired expertise but also their dedication to effectuating change.

Harvard Professors Gave Lectures To Students In the UAE
AUGUST 29, 2017

This year's edition of the Youth Lead the Challenge program (YLC) has ended this weekend in Dubai. 51 young adults from 19 schools in Abu Dhabi, Dubai, and Sharjah, had the rare chance to listen to lectures on leadership and entrepreneurship from Harvard Business School's professors.

Asked about his impression of the local youth, Harvard's Jonathan Iyamdemye replied:

" Students here are much more aware of the world around them and are a lot more receptive to new ideas than what we have come across in many other parts of the globe. And I think that's possible because of the cosmopolitan culture that the UAE has.
